Bruins Kash, of Keystone, West Virginia, came last week to spend a few days with his mother Mrs. Laura Kash. Bruins says business is duller in his region than it has been since 1907. With a hundred coal mining operations in his county very little coal is being mined as the operators can find but little sale for their product. But wages are still low, and the miners get only $5.00 a day and miners from $12 to $14 a day.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn E. Perry entertained Friday evening in honor of Miss Elizabeth Brother's guest Miss Alice Stinson, of Grand Forks, North Dakota. Those present were Misses Alice Stinson, Louise McAlister, Angie Young Jackson, Grace Crooks, Louise Lacy, Michu Martin, Elizabeth Brother, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Patterson, Mrs. E. V. Brother, Messrs. James Richards, Clark Lane, Harvey Crooks, Carroll Estill Byron, Palmer Giddell and Alex Goodpaster.

W. W. Nixon for Jailer.

Will W. Nixon, of Preston, is announced as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Jailer of Bath county in this issue of the Outlook. Mr. Nixon is well known here. He lived with and assisted his father while he was Jailer and will be remembered as the only Jailer of Bath county who withstood a large mob and saved a prisoner from being lynched and should be elected if it is safe to say the office would be in safe hands. He thinks the part of the county he holds from is entitled to some consideration. He was reared in this town where he has numerous friends who would be glad to see him succeed.

The Club will hereafter be affiliated with the State Federation of Woman's Clubs.

The Woman's Club, which did much excellent work in cleaning up the streets of the town will have to abandon their contemplated program for "clean-up-week" this year as they say the Mayor and the Council refuse to co-operate with them in this much-needed work.

OUTLOOK $1.50 PER YEAR.

THE UNBEATEN BEATEN

The Rounders won the game of ball Sunday from the Morehead team but by a small margin. Morehead took the lead on the start, making three runs in the first and second innings, though mostly due to errors. They maintained this lead up to the last half of the eighth. It was then the Rounders rallied and made four scores, shutting Morehead out in the first half of the ninth, winning the game was the best and most hotly contested perhaps of any game played on the Owingsville grounds for years. These teams will meet again on the Morehead grounds May 22. The Rounders play Shilohsburg Saturday and Salt Lick Sunday, both games on Owingsville grounds.

The Rounders lost to the Fleetsburg team Saturday on the latter's grounds by a score of 6 to 5. The same teams will play here Saturday, May 14.

The manufacturers of Rugs and Carpets have just announced reduced prices of about 25 per cent. from the reduced prices quoted last December and we have immediately reduced our retail prices to correspond.

We believe the lowest prices on Rugs have been reached for many months to come for it is generally known that if the new Tariff Bill, which places a tax on carpet woods, is passed—as many manufacturers believe it will be—the price of Rugs and Carpets will be increased.

Therefore we recommend you to buy now while the prices are at the bottom and while our selection is at its best.

WALLACE THOMAS

Wallace Thomas, aged 26 years, died Saturday morning at his home on Mill Creek, about four miles south of this place of acute yellow atrophy of liver. Deceased was a son of Lawrence Thomas and wife, of near Olympia, and is survived by his wife and two small children. Mr. Thomas was a member of the Mormon Church and the funeral was conducted by elders of that denomination. The burial was at the Old Fields graveyard. He was an industrious young man and a good citizen.

Four or five negroes suspected of the crime have been arrested and taken before Sexton, but he was positive in saying that none of them were his assailants.

Where One Gallon
Equals Two

Quality does tell! Measured by covering capacity and length of wear, one gallon of Hanna's Green Seal Paint proves itself equal to two gallons of so-called "cheap" paint. And there's a reason: viz.—no paint can be better than the ingredients that go into it.

HANNA'S GREEN SEAL PAINT contains only highest grade ingredients, universally recognized as necessary in making good paint. If a paint is sold at a ridiculously low price it simply means that it is lacking in these necessary ingredients and contains cheap adulterants. The exact formula is printed on every package of Green Seal.

NEWS CULLINGS From Kentucky

Frankfort.—Gov. Morrow appointed Joseph A. Cassidy, of Bellevue, and W. K. Shugart, of Liberty, advisers on his staff with the rank of colonel.

Owensboro.—The new consolidated school east of Owensboro may not be built this year on account of the high price of building materials. It was expected that the building would cost $100,000. The board of education has announced that the lowest bid received was $125,000. They voted to take no action at present.

Hazard.—Edmund Grimes, age 23, son of Luke Grimes, former postman here, was seriously injured when he was buried under five feet of sand in a cove on the river bank. It was learned. The boy was dug out after twenty minutes by passing a rod of silver in the bank cave. He is in a local hospital. Physicians say he may recover.

Paducah.—Twenty sessions of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church will be held in Paducah at the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian Church, according to arrangements which are being made.
Thirty or more delegates, representing sixteen churches in the presbytery, are expected for the conference. A program of interest has been arranged.

Owensboro.—Fire destroyed a residence in Tenth Street, owned by W. S.
Hazel and occupied by C. W. Kimbrell.
The loss is estimated at between $7,000 and $8,000. There was no insurance on the house, but Mr. Kimbrell had his furniture insured. A chest of drawers in the attic was burned together with one or two valuable rugs.
The fire started from a defective flue.

Paducah.—Three buildings were wrecked by a fire which threatened an entire block on South Third street, and left a block on Kentucky avenue.
The loss is estimated at between $75,000 and $100,000. Heavy losses were suffered by the Paducah Iron Company, the Paducah Leather Company and the Grand Lumber, a clothing and dry goods store, operated by Ben Leopoldsky.

Owensboro.—A jury in the Davess Circuit Court, four of the members belonging to the medical society of Pennsylvania, that he had studied 583 cases of tuberculosis, the onset of which symptoms was referred to an attack of influenza. The number of patients known to have had tuberculosis prior to the onset of influenza was comparatively small. In the majority of these cases the influenza had reactivated old quiescent lesions. In 84.3 per cent of the series studied the onset of tuberculosis dated from the influenza.

Lexington.—Various methods of improving the status of teachers next year were recommended by a special committee of teachers at the regular meeting of the Guild of Louisville Teachers, held at the Louisville Free Public Library. The recommendations covered five distinct lines as follows: Improve the economic condition for the teachers; the part of teacher in school administration; teachers' pensions; tenure of office, and the sabbatical year.

Paducah.—An indictment charging willful murder was returned against Van Daniels by the McCracken County grand jury. Daniels is accused of poisoning his father, Joe Daniels, an elderly farmer, who owned extensive property in the county. The body of Joe Daniels was found floating in Chestnut Creek. A large quantity of water on the lungs nor were any marks of violence found. Discovery of bottles on the pike where Van Daniels claimed his car broke down on the night he took his father into the country, led to an investigation of a theory of possible death by poisoning. An analysis of the stomach contents showed wood alcohol reaction.

Frankfort.—Live stock and other similar tangible personal property located on farm lands outside a graded school district, and used in connection with the graded school district, should be listed for taxation in the common school district where it is actually located. This opinion was given by I. B.
Ross, of Carlisle, by Attorney General
Dawson in answer to the question from Ross as to whether people residing in the city or in a graded school district and have a domicile there, but who own farm land outside the graded school district, should have their live stock and other personal property located on the farms listed for taxation in the graded school district or in the common school district.

Lagrange.—Two women and a six-year-old girl were injured and two men badly shaken up when an automobile in which they were riding turned over on the West port pike, and two one-half miles north of here, after having struck another machine and overturned it on the road into a field. Those injured are: Mrs. Frank Cook, Mrs. Le-Barckman, who suffered a wrenched knee, and Ruth Netherthorn, daughter of Ernest Netherthorn, who was badly cut about the arms. Mr. Netherthorn, who was also riding in the machine, escaped injury as also did the driver.

Louisville.—One man was killed and two others narrowly escaped death when they were drawn into a slide of coal in a huge bin that feeds the boilers at the Riverside Pumping Station of the Louisville Water Company. Twenty-five workmen, who quickly formed a rescue squad, labored frantically for half an hour before they were able to extricate Eugene M. Honaker, 28, 273
Belmont avenue, from beneath tons of coal that covered him.
He was dead from suffocation when found.

Doctor Johnson's Humanity.
Two copies of a rare pamphlet with an introduction by Doctor Johnson, which shows that the great man was always awake to the calls of humanity, as Boswell put it, have come into the market, observes the Christian Science Monitor. The pamphlets bear the title "The Prisoners of War," and were printed in 1780. Charles Wesley had visited the camp of prisoners of war at Knowe, near Bristol, and had been horrified at their ragged and miserable condition, and as a result a

COMMISSION.

Complaints By Various Users of Steel Products and Others Against the Alleged Use of the Device Known as
"The Pittsburgh Plus Price."

Washington.—A formal complaint against the United States Steel Corporation and 11 subsidiary companies, alleging unfair competition in interstate commerce, was issued by the Federal Trade Commission. This commission finally has decided that it has sufficient jurisdiction to take up the long-standing complaints by various users of steel products and others against the device known as the "Pittsburgh Plus price."

It was announced, however, that the commission had divided three to two, Chairman Thompson and Commissioners Pollard and Nugent voting for issuance of the complaint, and Commissioners Gaskill and Murock dissenting.

The corporation and its subsidiaries are given 30 days, or until May 31, to make formal answer to the complaint, after which the case will proceed to trial on its merits. The complaint, filed under the Clayton and trust act and the law establishing the commission, and the commission's announcement said the case was "an outgrowth of conditions complained of by more than 2,700 manufacturers of steel in the Chicago, Duluth and Birmingham districts, by legislators, and three states, by several municipalities and by Chambers of Commerce and many business organizations throughout the United States."

The "Pittsburgh plus price" is described at length in the commission's announcement, which says that under it "all steel shipped from the United States to points beyond the city of Pittsburgh is sold at the rate of the Pittsburgh price, plus an amount equivalent to the freight to point of destination," and as an illustration says that "if a manufacturer in Chicago (fabricator who runs his own stock) the Gary (Ind.) steel mill and purchases steel manufactured at that plant must pay the price charged in Pittsburgh, plus an amount equaling the freight rate from Pittsburgh to Gary."

George Town.—John B. Betts, known as "Daddy" Betts, committed suicide by drowning himself in Elk Horn Creek. The body, with a heavy stone tied to the chest with a clothesline, was found in three feet of water back of the brickyard in the north end of the city. No cause was given, although it was known he had been depressed lately. Mr. Betts, who was 65 years old, formerly was a leading merchant of Georgetown and one of its best-known men.

Paducah.—Death conquered in the two weeks' battle which Harold Wattace Sherrard, 24, construction workman, valiantly fought following injuries suffered when a train of coal cars crushed him against a brick wall at the plant of the Paducah Electric Company. Sherrard came to Paducah several weeks ago with a construction force from the North. He suffered a fractured skull. His widow and two small children survive. The body will be sent to Lytle, Ohio, for burial.

Ashland.—A hard road to Greenup from Ashland practically is assured, according to an announcement made by the Chamber of Commerce. The direct results of the elimination of this plan will be felt here in the immediate future for the long-looked-for building of Greenup and Boyd counties is near at hand. The industrial future of this territory will be given a decided boost. Of the probable cost $200,000, the State Road Commission will supply $100,000. The remaining $100,000 will be raised by popular subscription in Greenup County and Ashland. A total of $300,000 already has been pledged, with the campaign in Greenup county just starting.

Frankfort.—As Kentucky would derive but small benefit under the Townsend bill, now pending in Congress, the State Highway Commission has decided to send Chairman Green Garrett to Washington to assist in working out a federal aid bill. The Townsend bill would multiply federal money to a strictly federal highway scheme to be maintained by the government, and it has the backing of the East, the West and South being opposed to the enactment of the measure. At the meeting of the commission here, State Executive Joe Rogers said that it was doubtful if the United States senior highway engineer will approve letting any more contracts outside the projects already under way until Congress appropriates more money.

Frankfort.—The condition of wheat and rye in all the principal farming sections of Kentucky is unusually good; there are five per cent fewer bushels in the state than there were this time last year, and although the labor supply is only eight per cent below normal, the demand for farm labor is 13 per cent below normal, according to the April crop and livestock report for Kentucky, issued lately by the United States Bureau of Crop Estimates in co-operation with State Commissioner of Agriculture W. C.
Hanna.

Frankfort.—Superintendent of Public Instruction George Colvin has been notified that the George Peabody College for Teachers offers two nontransferable scholarships, value $25, for the summer quarter of 1921. The scholarships in this state will be awarded by Superintendent Colvin without recommendation or suggestion on the part of the college authorities. The scholarships will not be available until notice of their award with the names of the parties reach the college before June 1.

NEW YORKERS TOO CHILLY

Wyoming Man Astonished to Find He Couldn't Make Friends With Men
He Met in Hotel.

"They're a queer lot," said the man from Wyoming. "I've been living here in the same house with them for a month, and darned if I know any of them yet. Guess I never will," and he went on to explain how it was. "I came to New York for some New York people. Been coming here once or twice a year for a long time, but as I only stayed a few days, always put up at a hotel."

"This time I had to stay a couple of months, so someone told me about a bachelor hotel, and so I sounded pretty good I took it on. Have to give a lot of references and all that kind of thing—you'd a thought that I was trying to borrow a million dollars."

"After a while I got a room there and started to know the fellows. About one hundred men live at this place.
Little rooms like cells in a monastery, all right to sleep in and dress in if you haven't got many clothes. Nice house, though, with a lounge, gymnasium, sun parlor and a restaurant. The restaurant is a place where I thought that I could make some friends. I met a friend."

"When they come in they look for a vacant table. Seem to like to eat alone.
There are about thirty tables in this place, and pretty soon there are thirty men sitting at a table. Nearly everyone has a paper which he reads or pretends to read. If one comes in late and all the tables have somebody sitting at them, then he has got to sit down with another guy, and he acts like he is sorry he has to do it.

"He sits down, looks at the ceiling or at the wall just beyond the other man's shoulder, looks everywhere but at the other man. If his feet happen to touch the other's under the table he hugs hard. They are mighty polite.
Once I thought one was going to be my partner because he accidentally looked at me."

"We don't do that way out in Wyoming. If I go into a large restaurant there is only one man at a table I go over and sit down with him so we can talk and get acquainted. We are sociable folks out there and everybody wants to know everybody else.
Way we figure it, life is pretty short and a man needs all the friends he can get."—New York Sun.

He Returned the Compliment.
Little Jack went over to see the friend of his mother's one afternoon while she was at the club. The friend tried to be as friendly as she could, but she went to him and finally she began to talk to him very much in the way she would to an older person. "Oh, I have a trade list for you," she said. "My husband says you're such a fine little fellow; so much nicer than you used to be."

Be Careful.
A postoffice inspector from Texas was in Indianapolis recently and he told this story of Texas wit.
In the lobby of a Galveston theater he posted a sign reading:
"Please do not smoke. Remember the Galveston theater fire."

Under this sign a patron of the theater wrote:
"Please do not spit on the floor.
Remember the Galveston flood."

Wild Fowl in Danger.
Conservation of water and marsh areas is necessary to the perpetuation of the migratory wild fowl. The Department of Agriculture said in a statement.

Dr. E. W. Nelson, chief of the survey, declared the rapidly increasing drainage of lakes and marshes throughout the country indicates that wild fowl food and feeding places will be practically eliminated from most of the states unless a considerable number of the best of them are conserved.

Oh, Girls—Such a Secret.
May-Jack said he could guess my waist measure by encircling it with his arm.

Did he? Did he?
May—Almost exactly.
Fay—Wonderful!
May—But he did it ngle for good measure.

badness?"
"No, he's too sensible under it."

ternoon. She is certainly a tidy housekeeper.

Products and Others Against the Alleged Use of the Device Known as

poration and 11 subsidiary companies,
commission finally has decided that

two, Chairman Thompson and Com-
dissenting.

The corporation and its subsidiaries
make formal answer to the complaint,
steel in the Chicago, Duluth and Bir-

Pittsburgh price, plus an amount equivalent to the freight to point of destina-
(fabricator who runs his own stock)

as "Daddy" Betts, committed suicide
by drowning himself in Elk Horn Creek. The body, with a heavy stone
tied to the chest with a clothesline,
best-known men.

man, valiantly fought following in-
at the plant of the Paducah Electric
be sent to Lytle, Ohio, for burial.

from Ashland practically is assured,
according to an announcement made
mediate future for the long-looked-for
ture of this territory will be given a
$100,000 will be raised by popular sub-
been pledged, with the campaign in Greenup county just starting.

school district where it is actually located. This opinion was given by I. B.
or in the common school district.

jured are: Mrs. Frank Cook, Mrs. Le-
knee, and Ruth Netherthorn, daughter of
caped injury as also did the driver.

at the Riverside Pumping Station of
workmen, who quickly
Belmont avenue, from beneath tons of coal that covered him.
He was dead from suffocation when found.

the market, observes the Christian Sci-

committee for their relief was formed.
One of the pamphlets with Doctor Johnson's noble and humane introduction is a presentation copy to Laurence Sterne, and the other to Sir Thomas Robinson, who was at one time leader of the house of commons.

Swedish women of all classes are particularly fond of flowers, and in proportion to its size and population, Stockholm has more flower shops than any other European city.
